ESENCIA TANGUERA

A journey into the heart of tango

From December 27th to January 5th

An exclusive experience designed for those who feel tango as something deeper than just a dance.

Ten days in Buenos Aires, exploring the city's vibrant tango life, from its most traditional corners to its contemporary expressions. You'll take classes, go out dancing, rest, share, and discover the many faces of tango, beyond stereotypes and clichés.

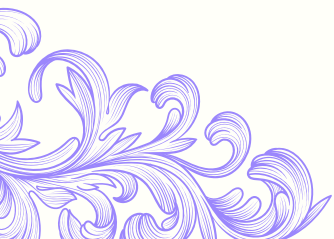

We'll stay in a private house with a pool, just for our group, creating a safe and warm space where connection and presence are at the center of everything.

This journey is guided by those who were born and raised in the city, we know the real Buenos Aires, and we want to show it to you from the inside out.

What kind of journey awaits you?

- Group tango classes with renowned local teachers
- Evening outings to different milongas, from the most classic to the most contemporary styles
- Private house or hotel, shared only by our group, with a swimming pool, terrace, and common spaces
- Free time to explore the city, rest, or keep dancing
- Ongoing support from Gero and Romi throughout your stay, and if you stay longer, we'll still be here to help you
- ...and of course, a few beautiful surprises along the way

Extras

A full day in El Tigre (all inclusive)

A magical getaway to the river delta just outside the city, lush nature, canals, wooden docks, and a slower rhythm of life.

We'll spend the day at the private home of renowned bandoneonist Hugo Satorre, surrounded by water and trees. There, we'll enjoy a special live concert, good food, and deep connection, a unique way to experience another face of Buenos Aires.

Guided city tour

An intimate and carefully curated walk through the heart of Buenos Aires, stories, history, hidden corners, and the cultural roots that shaped tango.

Why this journey is different

This is not a pre-packaged tour. It's a deeply curated experience, guided by people who were born and raised in Buenos Aires, and who live tango as a way of being.

You'll dance with teachers who carry decades of experience, and who are still exploring. You'll be welcomed, accompanied, and held.

You won't just learn steps, you'll connect with the culture, the streets, the music, and the emotion that make tango a living language.

And all of this, with the warmth of a small group and the care of a team who designed this journey not as a product, but as a gift.

Meet the Teachers

Romina Balletti & Gerónimo Dorkas

They will welcome you and help you land in your body, gently preparing you for everything this journey will bring.

Corina Herrera

She embodies both elegance and earthiness, weaving together old-school tango with the freshness of the present.

“Los Totis” Virginia Gomez & Christian Marquez

A couple who carry the legacy of classic tango, with precise structure, elegant lines, and deep musicality shaped for the social dance floor.

Sebastián Fernández & Mara Oviedo

Rising stars and runners-up at the 2025 Buenos Aires Tango Championship. Their dance is young, passionate, and rich with adornments, full of energy, presence, and strength.

Gastón Torelli & Gri Montanaro

Masters of blending the essence of traditional tango with modern forms, spiral movements, off-axis explorations, and a grounded, earthy flow.

Pablo Villaraza & Carolina Lafatta

Pablo co-founded the iconic DNI Tango school. Together with Carolina, they transcend convention, bringing a contemporary presence infused with influences from other dance forms. Their tango has a poetic quality that lifts the spirit.

Cynthia Fattori

She brings Argentine folklore to life, chacareras and zambas danced as if in a sunlit patio of earth. Her movement evokes both historical memory and vibrant contemporary expression.

Each one of them brings a unique flavor to this journey, they are not just teachers, but part of the soul of this experience.
